

FREE Electronic and Universal Waste Recycling!

CITY OF CHULA VISTA

Funded by a grant from the California
Integrated Waste
Management
Board

Saturday, February 2 from 9-3 pm

Southwestern College Parking Lots B and C • 900 Otay Lakes Rd, Chula Vista 91911

SOUTHWESTERN COLLEGE

Environmental Technology Program

For more info, visit www.chulavistaca.gov/clean

Printed on recycled paper.

Acceptable items include:

- Televisions, Monitors and Household Electronics
(Desktop and laptop computers, radios, camcorders, DVD and VHS players etc.)
- Household batteries, fluorescent light tubes and bulbs
- Mercury-containing thermometers, thermostats and switches
(Exchange a mercury-containing thermometer for a free digital thermometer.)

NO stoves, refrigerators, car batteries, paint or other hazardous waste!

CV connect

Your Link to the Community

Debuts in February—
Sign up now!

The City of Chula Vista is going green!

We're replacing our Spotlight publication with a new interactive online newsletter called CV Connect. Visit the City's home page at www.chulavistaca.gov to subscribe-- you'll get the latest on city news, enjoy special features and find out about upcoming events.

There will be six issues of CV Connect per year, keeping you even more connected!

See you then.